BIOGRAPHY

Evan Wolfe is a native New Yorker who moved to South Florida with his family while he was in high school. He graduated from the University of Florida with a Bachelors Degree in economics. He then earned his Jurist Doctor degree from the University of Miami School of Law.

Mr. Wolfe was first introduced to the world of property damage and insurance claims when he and his college roommate accidentally burned down their house while cooking dinner. He quickly learned on his own insurance claim that the process could be long, frustrating and drawn out. He started representing property owners who suffered damage after Hurricane Andrew in 1992.

Mr. Wolfe devoted so much time to assisting indigent victims of the storm that he was awarded the Pro Bono Service award that year from the Florida Bar. Mr. Wolfe's practice is exclusively focused on representing policyholders who have suffered damage from hurricanes, floods, tornados, hailstorms, fires, thefts, blasting, collapse and all other forms of property damage. His clients range from municipalities to houses of worship, condominium associations, homeowners associations, private residences, apartment complexes, office buildings, hotels, motels, and warehouses.

He is admitted to practice law in the State of Florida and the United States District Courts for Colorado, Western Oklahoma, Nebraska, New Mexico, West Texas, Eastern and Western Arkansas and Northern Illinois. Mr. Wolfe handles cases nationwide.

Mr. Wolfe is a member of The Florida Bar, The Florida Bar Trial Lawyers Association, The Broward County Bar Association, the South Broward Bar Association, the Colorado Trial Lawyers Association, The Nebraska Association Of Trial Lawyers, The Oklahoma Association For Justice, The Texas Policyholders Advocates and The Federal Bar Association, Colorado Chapter. He is also a member of The Community Association Inc., Denver Chapter and the National Association of Residential Property Managers, National Chapter, Denver Chapter, San Antonio Chapter, Florida State Chapter, The National Apartment Association National Chapter, Denver Chapter, Houston Chapter, and the Southeast Florida Apartment Association.
