

Larry Bache, Esq.

➔ About Me

Larry Bache's purpose is to serve clients, protect their interests and recover from their insurance company. This dedication to customer service, value system of high integrity and honesty has made Larry a shining star among Merlin clients. He is a diligent lawyer that works hard to understand this area of the law inside and out. He will never back down from a situation just because it is difficult. Larry feels one of his biggest and best attributes is his ability to take a difficult legal concept and break it down for his clients.

Larry specializes in hail, windstorm, business interruption, earth movement, and bad faith litigation. Larry predominately represents commercial property owners, real estate investment trusts, and condominium associations. Larry joined the Merlin Law Group in October 2010 and has practiced exclusively on behalf of policyholders nationwide. Specifically, Larry has represented clients in California, Texas, Florida, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Illinois, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Georgia, Wisconsin, Indiana, Iowa, and Kansas.

Larry graduated from Stetson University College of law in the top 10% of his class, while also pursuing his master of Business Administration Degree. Larry's education and experience as a mortgage underwriter provides him with an in-depth understanding of risk allocation. This unique background combined with his interpersonal communication style has won him praises from clients and peers alike.
